Five of the best places to get a sandwich in Doncaster

Kim's Kitchen

Where: Great North Road Bawtry Paintball Fields, Doncaster DN10 6DG England

Located within a paintball basecamp, Kim's Café offers a wide range of hot and cold meals, from a breakfast buttie to giant hotdogs. The café has been featured in the Tom Cruise Hollywood blockbuster – Edge of Tomorrow.

Trip Advisor rating: 5

Review: "Amazing food with some very friendly staff, met all my needs as I am a vegan and catered for my needs whilst being at paintballing. Overall amazing experience and would recommend."

The Glass Strawberry

Where: 48-50 Printing Office Street, Doncaster DN1 1TR England

The ideal spot for anyone passionate about great food and an amazing brunch experience. They offer an extensive menu that caters to many dietary needs, using fresh produce and ingredients. The meals are cooked from scratch and made to order.

Trip Advisor rating: 4.5

Review: “The food simply made it! Displayed in a wooden shelf, the sandwich selection was tasty, the cakes were beautifully decorated and the scone with a hint of cinnamon or all spice was delectable. Our server Brianna was very attentive throughout. 10/10 will come back for sure”

Tweed at Wadworth

Where: Carr Lane, Wadworth, Wadworth, Doncaster DN11 9AS England

A small country coffee shop attached to butchers and owned by the same family. All produce sold is fresh and cooked to order, with the butchers sourcing meats locally.

Trip Advisor rating: 5

Review: “Very good service and great food. Thankfully, we were taken to a shaded table on a really warm sunny day. Good choice on the menu. We went for Moroccan chicken skewers, sausage sandwich and a steak baguette... all really good.”

Thornhurst Manor

Where: Holme Lane, Doncaster DN5 0LR England

A manor house situated within a country park offers a laid-back culinary experience. All ingredients are sourced locally, and it is a great location to celebrate an occasion or have leisurely afternoon tea.

Trip Advisor rating: 4.5

Review: “Attended with my mum and dad. Ate of the set menu, had 2 roasts and a hot sandwich. Food was delicious and hot. Didn't really have room for dessert but had to. Great value for money and the portions are huge”

The Classic Café

Where: Great North Road, Bawtry, Doncaster DN10 6DG England

A relaxed, modern café offering a range of fresh Italian coffee and a menu of traditional British cuisine, including a range of sandwiches.

Trip Advisor rating: 4.5

Review: “Great food and drink at very good prices. Delicious prawn mayo sandwich with crisps, fresh salad and homemade coleslaw. Good service and a very pleasant environment and seating arrangement.”
