Five of the best places to get a sandwich in Edinburgh

Honeycomb Tearoom

Where: 129 Morrison Street, Edinburgh EH3 8AJ Scotland

A friendly, all-day modern eatery with a passion for great tastes and flavours. Open every day for breakfast, lunch, brunch, cakes, or choose your favourites "to-go".

Trip Advisor rating: 4.5

Review: "We love this little tearoom. The food quality is always high, and there is plenty of it! Normally our first place for breakfast when we visit Edinburgh. This time we had the porridge with berries, waffles with salmon and avocado, and eggs, salmon and avocado on sourdough. Large choice of teas and coffees. Definitely recommend!"

Peacock Alley at Waldorf Astoria Edinburgh - The Caledonian

Where: Princes Street, Edinburgh EH1 2AB Scotland

Located in the heart of a hotel, this restaurant is stylish and sophisticated. Offering breakfast, light lunch or afternoon tea.

Trip Advisor rating: 4.5

Review: "A nice way to spend the afternoon. Great selection of tea. Beautiful presentation of tasty sandwiches and desserts. Melony was our server and provided superior service and attentiveness. Very relaxing."

The Prahna Indian Grill

Where: 295A St. John's Road Corstorphine, Edinburgh EH12 7XF Scotland

The restaurant offers a variety of flavourful Indian dishes using locally sourced ingredients and made with a Scottish twist.

Trip Advisor rating: 5

Review: "Food was great, a lovely mix of traditional afternoon tea but with a tasty twist. The sandwich was amazing. I enjoyed all the food and teas we had. Great place for lunch and the cheery waiter is doing a fantastic job."

PIGGS

Where: 276 Canongate, Edinburgh EH8 8AA Scotland

A small Spanish hidden gem offering fine wine, tapas and a selection of sandwiches. A family-owned business run by two brothers who have a love for the Spanish way of life.

Trip Advisor rating: 5

Review: "Right at the start of the Royal Mile, this looks like more of a wine bar but actually has a great tapas and sandwich menu. We opted for some sandwiches which were fantastic!"

Rankin's Café

Where: 4 Main Street, North Queensferry KY11 1JG Scotland

Rakin Café is a small café with a menu filled with comforting classics, including freshly made sandwiches, home-baked cakes and their famous breakfast.

Trip Advisor rating: 4.5

Review: “Found on trip advisor and so glad we did. In a beautiful wee spot next to the new Queensferry bridge. Steak sandwich with chips and chicken and sweetcorn ciabatta very yummy and good portions (not too huge). A lemon topped millionaire slice also especially yummy. Will definitely go again when we are up this way.”

About The British Sandwich & Food to Go Association:

The British Sandwich & Food to Go Association is a trade body established in 1990 to represent the interests of all those businesses involved and the food on the move industry. Members range from supermarkets and Food to Go manufacturers to sandwich bars, cafes and the suppliers of ingredients and equipment for the industry. As well as representing the interests of members to Government, the Association sets industry standards, as well as organising events such as British Sandwich Week and the annual The Sandwich & Food to Go Awards, also known as ‘the Sammies’.
