Five of the best places to get a sandwich in Hull and surrounding areas

The Snaith Chippy & Bistro

Where: 1 High Street, Snaith, Goole DN14 9HF England

A well-known fish and chip shop in Goole, serving up traditional "chippy" foods to eat on the go.

Trip Advisor rating: 4.5

Review: "We are the wrong side of 60 so have had a few fish suppers from chip shops before. Lots to compare to. These were the very best ever."

The Black Cat Tea & Coffee Room

Where: 36 Prestongate Hull, Hessle HU13 0RE England

They offer a fantastic array of delectable treats, bites and warm drinks. They deliver lunch meals such as large cooked breakfasts, chip butties, toasties and cold sandwiches to hungry cyclists on their trail.

Trip Advisor rating: 4.5

Review: "Sandwich's of our choice with salad and coleslaw, accompanied by beautiful scones with jam and clotted cream finished off with lovely lemon cake and flapjack. I just had to place on cake stand and perfect afternoon tea complete. Excellent service and deliver"

Nibble

Where: Queen Street, Kingston-upon-Hull HU1 1UU England

A café offering all things on or between bread including toasties, burgers, sandwiches, avocado on toast and many more. They pride themselves on the presentation of the food, and this does not disappoint.

Trip Advisor rating: 4.5

Review: "We fancied a really nice sandwich and nibble didn't disappoint! We both got a grilled sandwich from the specials board and it was beaut! First time we have been for about 12 months and I forgot just how good it was!"

Solos Music Cafe

Where: 141 Kingston Road, Willerby HU10 6AL England

Solos is a café shop with a music-theme run-through, offering a wide section of café foods and promoting the local talent of individual musicians, allowing them to perform their own and others' music to customers and guests.

Trip Advisor rating: 5

Review: "I've eaten here three times now and not been disappointed. The choice of light meals is very good, including Spanish and Italian platters. These are good value and slightly different for a change from a wrap or sandwich. Prices are reasonable and service is very good."

The Little Coffee House

Where: 8 Brook Street, Selby YO8 4AR England

The coffee house serves great barista-style coffee, breakfasts, light lunches, daily hot specials, sandwiches, and home baked cakes and other fabulous treats.

Trip Advisor rating: 5

Review: “I have a bacon sandwich on a white baguette every Saturday morning and it has always been fantastic. Cakes are unbelievable as well.”
