

BRITISH SANDWICH WEEK: 5 BEST PLACES TO GET A SANDWICH IN BRISTOL

Five of the best places to get a sandwich according to trip advisor

Whether you love a wrap, baguette or sandwich, British Sandwich Week (Monday 22nd- Sunday 28th May) is back to celebrate the delicious, filled British staple that is loved by the nation. If you're looking for a new sandwich shop, retailer, or chain to try out in Bristol, or you want to see where your favourite ranks, you've come to the right place.

Bristol is full of places to pick up your favourite sarnie. But in celebration of British Sandwich Week, we have rounded up the best sandwich shops according to TripAdvisor reviews.

TripAdvisor tells us that there are almost 1,000 sandwich bars in Bristol, so whether you prefer a fresh made-to-order sub, you're pining for a panini or got the munchies for a melt, you are spoilt for choice.

Some places in Bristol offer a dine-in option – others just food-to-go and some are getting creative with their sandwich options. So, a lot of fun is waiting to be had on the sandwich scene in Bristol. Here we've rounded up five of the best places to check out, all rated above 4.

Five of the best places to get a sandwich in Bristol

Gert Lush

Where: 9A Regent Street

Freshly made sandwiches buffets, snack van rounds and take away shop in the heart of Clifton Village, Bristol.

Review: "Everything is made fresh here on the day, and a great selection from such a hardworking eatery. Bread baked every morning, ingredients fresh and prepared on-site, and most importantly, delicious! Great quality lunches for under a fiver, what more do you want!"

Falafel King

Where: 6 Cotham Hill

When the sun's shining on the harbourside it becomes a hub, a place for all generations to meet up for a bite to eat.

Review: "Delish food, relaxed vibe and good outdoor seating in the wonderfully characterful and vibrant Cotham made this a great place for lunch. Love the choice of bread and addition of 'squeaky' halloumi to the menu. Yum!"

Sandwich Sandwich

Where: 48-52 Baldwin Street Bridge House, Bristol BS1 1QQ England

Bristol's finest sandwiches are served daily from across Bristol. They also cater for office meetings and events.

Review: "AMAZING sandwiches! Had one of their specials. Delicious. Won't lie you need to eat with a knife and fork though. It's massive!! "

No.1 Harbourside

Where: 1 Canons Road, Bristol BS1 5UH England

No1 Harbourside is an independent bar, restaurant and live music venue.

Review: "Popped in to escape the rain and had a lovely Bacon sandwich and fries."

Roost

Where: Aztec Centre, Bristol BS324TD England

Describes itself as offering the best freshly made sandwiches in Bristol.

Review: "First time here and was impressed by the range of tasty fresh food. We tried the halloumi wraps which were excellent. Quick service despite being very busy."

ENDS

For additional information, images, and interview requests, please contact:
the press office team: (e) Becks@hoppr.co.uk
(t) 07951 605454

Editors Notes:

About British Sandwich Week:

British Sandwich Week takes place from 22-28 May 2023. Now in its 29th year, the annual event showcases the breadth, quality and innovation found within the UK's sandwich and food-to-go sector. Find out more <https://www.britishsandwichweek.com/>

Connect with us:

#BritishSandwichWeek

Website: <https://www.thesammies.co.uk/index.php>

Instagram: @britishsandwichandfoodtogo

Twitter: @BritishSandwich

Facebook: @British Sandwich & Food to Go

About The British Sandwich & Food to Go Association:

The British Sandwich & Food to Go Association is a trade body established in 1990 to represent the interests of all those businesses involved and the food on the move industry. Members range from supermarkets and Food to Go manufacturers to sandwich bars, cafes and the suppliers of ingredients and equipment for the industry. As well as representing the interests of members to Government, the Association sets industry standards, as well as organising events such as British Sandwich Week and the annual The Sandwich & Food to Go Awards, also known as 'The Sammies'.