Five of the best places to get a sandwich in Manchester

Richmond Tea Rooms

Where: 46 Sackville Street, Manchester M1 3WF England

Venue with fantastic decor, serving breakfast, afternoon tea, sandwiches, cakes and cocktails.

Trip Advisor Rating: 4

Review: "Wow - what a fabulous place - the food is exquisite - the service second to none - special shout out to Sanita she really looked after us. Lemon chicken sandwiches and the most incredible strawberry tart - to die for!!!!"

Robert and Victor

Where: 85 Oxford Street St James Building, Manchester M1 6ET England

Robert & Victor is a quality catering company and sandwich shop inspired by Belgian/French cuisine. Its mission is to change how lunchtimes, meetings and events in Greater Manchester are catered for with simply, quality food.

Trip Advisor Rating: 5

Review: "Perfect sausage and bacon ciabatta which was toasted so it was super-hot! It was paired with a great flat white for a very reasonable £5.75."

A Taste Of Honey

Where: 138 Burton Road Didsbury, Manchester M20 1JQ England

A Taste of Honey is a charming, well-stocked deli and CBD store at the heart of the bustling Burton Road area of West Didsbury.

Trip Advisor rating: 4.5

Review: "Amazing food, such a variety of fresh delicious products. Friendly helpful staff. Food is wonderful, there is something for everyone at the deli, plenty of options to take away, sauces, spices, honey, chocolate."

Martin's Craft Bakery

Where: 9C Crofts Bank Road, Urmston M41 0TZ England

Martins is a family-run business dedicated to quality food. With shops all across Manchester offering you the best bread, cakes, pies & pasties and not to mention its award-winning made to order sandwiches.

Trip Advisor rating: 4.5

Review: "The home-baked and prepared food on the premises is top quality. The staff are very polite and helpfull and the shop is always full. I love the family pork pies and always take one on the fellwalking trips to share. We all love their pies. Pasties, sandwiches and the likes all good quality."

Katsouris Deli

Where: 113 Deansgate, Manchester M3 2BQ England

Large cafe and delicatessen, in a Gothic-style building, with pavement seats and toasted sandwiches.

Trip Advisor Rating: 4

Review: "I have visited here for more years than I can remember. Still excellent quality products and are reasonably priced. Had a great carved gammon ciabatta with stuffing and fried onions. Washed down with a lovely chocolate brownie."
