Five of the best places to get a sandwich in Yorkshire.

Kim's Kitchen

Where: Great North Road Bawtry Paintball Fields, Doncaster DN10 6DG England

From a warm fresh croissant and coffee all the way through to a full English Breakfast - it has it all.

Trip Advisor rating: 5

Review: "Decent prices, can order anything from hot and cold sandwiches to burger and chips, cakes, and slushes. It has an ice cream maker and teas and coffees. Well worth it definitely."

Le Munch Brunch

Where: 15 Northgate, Halifax HX1 1UR England

Le Munch Bunch describes itself as the best sandwich shop in Halifax.

Trip Advisor Rating: 4.5

Review: "Been going to the local sandwich shop for the last year. Food is always delicious and the service is always on point."

The Snaith Chippy & Bistro

Where: 1 High Street, Snaith, Goole DN14 9HF England

A friendly local community Fish and Chip shop with a quality Bistro that is affordable to all our customers.

Trip Advisor Rating: 4.5

Review: "Truly great. Wonderful. Eat in or take out. Perfectly fine pricing. Friendly. The only trouble is, I just want to go back every day!!!! Thank you."

Muker Village Store and Teashop

Where: Gunning Lane, Muker, Yorkshire Dales National Park DL11 6QG England

Trip Advisor rating: 5

A small cosy village store and tea shop set in the heart of the idyllic village of Muker.

Review: "Stopped for lunch after walk - Wensleydale cheese and ham toasted sandwich was super tasty and made with very good quality ham. The cake also very tasty."

Jug & Bottle

Where: Old School Main Street, Bubwith YO8 6LX England

The Jug & Bottle is passionate about its shop. It's been likened to "Harrods of the North" or a Northern Fortnum & Mason. It strives to find "different" things.

Trip Advisor Rating: 4.5

Review: "I popped in to grab some lunch, a chap told me to get the bhaji sandwich and I now want another. It was amazing".
